

Presented by John Dunleavy

John Dunleavy is a freelance Certified Deaf Interpreter/ Translator and Technical Consultant. His background includes more than 20 years in Information Systems, followed by more than 15 years in Independent Living/Deaf Services. Since his birth on the north shore of Massachusetts he has held a wide variety of jobs: Sailmaker, Salad Chef, Diamond Core Driller, Dorm Supervisor, High School Teacher and Adult Education Teacher. He is also a bona-fide geek, and has long been fascinated by microcomputers and home automation systems. He is married to Brenda Schertz and they now reside in Rochester, N.Y.

Thursday, May 24, 2018

6:00 PM ~ 8:00 PM

at

Buffalo Club of the Deaf (BCD)

2275 Clinton St.

Buffalo, NY 14206

For more information please contact

Patty Tadak, Coordinator of (B.E.A.D.) Buffalo Education & Awareness of the Deaf

VP: 716-989-4595 or e-mail: tadakp@yahoo.com

Thanks to Buffalo Club of the Deaf and Buffalo Civic Association of the Deaf for sponsoring this event.